Pam 55-4114

State Suffrage School

A training course in citizenship for the people of Wisconsin

To be held in Madison for one week beginning

June 18th 1914

A session of five days will be held with classes and lectures by expert teachers and prominent speakers.

Courses in the Following Subjects Will be Offered:

I. The legal and economic status of women.
II. Wisconsin Laws governing Women and Children.
III. Public speaking for Suffrage.
IV. Organization for Suffrage.
V. Propaganda and press work for Suffrage.
VI. History of Suffrage.

This Session is designed as a Training School for:—

1. Those who wish to be informed on the status of women in their relation to politics and economics.
2. Those who are interested in the development of the women of their own communities and who wish to organize suffrage clubs or speak for suffrage and the need of women in civic affairs.
3. These who will take up the work for suffrage professionally as organizers and campaign leaders.

All people who are interested in civic betterment are eligible. Students may enroll for the full course or any part of it.

To all who are interested in this preliminary announcement, full details as to teachers, lecturers and courses to be offered will be sent upon request mailed to

Alice B. Curtis
Secretary of Wisconsin Woman Suffrage Association.
431-432 Washington Building, Madison, Wis.

Return this section with name and address, and information will be forwarded to you.

Please Publish This Announcement and Post on Bulletin Boards

State Journal Printing Co.