Wisconsin Federation of Women Wage Earners

AIMS AND PLANS

EMERGENCY AND TEMPORARY

To safeguard the interests of those women who are now in industry and of those who are entering industry on account of the war, and to prepare for the readjustment at the end of the war.

PERMANENT

To maintain headquarters where wage earning women may become acquainted with one another and with their problems and working conditions.

To establish an open forum for the discussion of public questions.

To secure representation on administrative bodies which deal with women's interests.

To insure representation at legislative and administrative hearings on subjects affecting women's welfare.

To aid in the planning and organization of continuation school classes.

To have a continuous survey of the occupations of the community, and of the advantages, disadvantages and opportunities of each.

To guide girls in their choice of vocations, and to assist them to promotion.

To improve working conditions through legislation and the creation of public opinion.

To provide free local employment bureau service.
