SAY ABOUT Mc CARTHY

CAN ALL THESE LEADING AMERICANS BE WRONG?

WORST IN SENATE

"The top five men in the U. S. Senate today, according to the political scientists specializing in legislation, are: . . . The five Senators rated lowest are: Cain of Washington, Malone of Nevada, McKellar of Tennessee, Jenner of Indiana, and at the very bottom, McCarthy of Wisconsin."

AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION
January 27, 1952.

(OVER 50 POLITICAL SCIENCE EXPERTS)

LIFE MAGAZINE --

"the nation owes no debt to Joe McCarthy".

COLLIERS -- July 15, 1950 --

"embarrassed his party and confused the whole country . . . truth and decency are at stake".

BEN HIBBS, EDITOR, SATURDAY EVENING POST --

"succeeded only in muddying the waters and play into the hands of the enemy".

TIME MAGAZINE -- October 22, 1951

"He did not produce the name of even one Communist in the State Department".

WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT, 225 Wis. 234 --

"violated his oath as Circuit Judge and as an attorney at law".

NEW YORK TIMES -- October 4, 1951 --

"political career out of mud-slinging".

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR -- May 10, 1950 --

"assisting the Kremlin".

GRANT COUNTY INDEPENDENT --

"McCarthy has come, left his poison and departed".

THE TOLEDO (OHIO) BLADE -- August 14, 1951 -- the "rantings of the irresponsible Senator McCarthy . . . are a constant affront to the Senate".

VERNON COUNTY CENSOR -- Viroqua, Wisconsin

"Democracy and our state's good name will suffer unless McCarthy is retired from public life".

GLENWOOD CITY (WIS.) TRIBUNE --

"retire this demagogue who is a menace to a free country".

WALTER E. ALESSANDRONI, CHAIRMAN AMERICAN LEGION UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE -- charges are "morally damaging to our national thinking".

CHARLES C. RALLS, while National Commander-in-Chief of THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS --

"all McCarthy is interested in is making a big name for himself".

WILLIAM EXLINE, Senior Vice-Commander of THE MILITARY ORDER FOR THE PURPLE HEART --

"potentially far more dangerous than those he accuses".

GOV. EARL WARREN, June 18, 1951 --

"I don't think any good comes from accusations of that kind".

SEN. WAYNE MORSE, Oregon Republican --

"I want proof -- not smear".

THE COMMONWEAL -- CATHOLIC WEEKLY MAGAZINE

"The voice of McCarthy was abroad in the land and it is now, as it was in the beginning, a poisoned and fearful thing. It went on forever making unproved charges, forever irresponsible, forever merely free of libel; it went on exploiting the insecure, the anxious, the confused, and the afraid.

"It told no truth, and held no answers . . . We have known demagogues in our political history but this is a special kind -- an evil kind, a deliberate kind. It adds falseness to the already false.

"It represents the other side of the election coin. It is the spurious and the counterfeit. It would be legal tender nowhere in any world where reason was and where intelligence was operative."

ENDURED UNTIL REMOVED

"The sooner Joseph R. McCarthy, the self-appointed super patriot, is kicked out of the United States Senate the better it will be for the Republican Party and the cause of clean and responsible government.

"But it must be borne in mind that Sen. McCarthy is in the Senate because the people of Wisconsin put him there and he must be endured, we believe, until the voters of his state remove him. They will have an opportunity to do just that in 1952."

THE DENVER POST

"TAIL GUNNER JOE"

McCARTHY SAYS: He enlisted in the Marines as a "buck private".

FACTS: His military record shows he entered service as an officer.

McCARTHY SAYS: He was "Tail Gunner Joe" and in political campaigns he used pictures showing himself to be a tail gunner.

FACTS: His military record shows he was an intelligence officer, received no aerial gunners wings, and had no recorded combat missions.

McCARTHY SAYS: He was wounded in action.

FACTS: His military record shows no battle wounds, no Purple Heart which is given for all battle wounds, and not even an injury of any kind while on active duty.

FURTHER FACTS: His military record shows he was relieved from active duty at his request in February, 1945, which was 6 months before end of Pacific war and was prior to the costly battles of Iwo Jima and Okinawa.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON, WISCONSIN 53706

A brief news and editorial history of

JUDGE JOE McCARTHY

Regular Republican Candidate for the U. S. Senate

Don't Forget to Vote August 13

"YOUNGEST CIRCUIT JUDGE IN THE UNITED STATES"

"Born on a farm, he lived there until past the age when most boys go to high school." "Then he enrolled, and got his Diploma for a 4-year course in one year."

"He breezed through law school in much the same fashion, finding time in addition to earn his own expenses and to serve as university boxing coach. Graduating, he went to Shawano, practiced Law for a couple years, and then, against the advice of almost all the older attorneys in the circuit, ran for circuit judge, conducted a whirlwind, hard driving campaign, and was elected six years ago, the youngest circuit judge in the United States."

—John Wyngoord, Madison Political Writer

"JUDGE McCARTHY SLASHES RED TAPE"

"Breaking with the 'horse and buggy' tradition that has tied up the calendars of most Wisconsin circuit courts, young Judge Joseph R. McCarthy of Appleton has streamlined his circuit, and has made a hit with lawyers and litigants alike.

"Never one to stand much on red tape, Judge McCarthy's court innovations in the tenth circuit slash through musty tradition to eliminate delays and speed hearings.

" 'Justice delayed is justice denied,' is his theory."

—Milwaukee Journal (News Item)

McCARTHY'S CAPACITY FOR HARD WORK

"McCarthy's personal initiative and capacity for hard work were responsible for his success as a farmer, grocery store manager, lawyer, judge, and as a soldier."

—Shawano County Journal (Editorial)

"Joe McCarthy is the type impregnated with the mother wit and quick, penetrating ability gloved in prudence that has already redeemed the Republican party in most of the country and bids fair to rescue the nation from those who are still dizzied by subterfuge and dazzled by sophistry."

—Appleton Post Crescent (Editorial)

"As a judge he administered justice promptly and with the combination of legal knowledge and good 'horse sense' for which people admired him."

—Rhineland News (Editorial Reprint)

WISCONSIN JUDGE HOLDS COURT ON GUADALCANAL

"GUADALCANAL — (Delayed). Every evening 'the judge' holds court in a dilapidated shack just off a jungle air strip deep in the South Pacific combat zone.

"The folks back in Wisconsin might be a trifle shocked at his lack of dignity now. He stands barechested before his bench, an ancient table reeling on its last legs, and opens court with:

"'All right, what kind of hell did you give the Japs today?'

"Every evening the pilots and radio-gunners step before the bench and tell 'Mac' — as everyone calls him out here — just where they planted their huge bombs, how many fires they started, how many Jap planes they shot down, or, rarely, why they failed to complete their mission."

—Milwaukee Sentinel

"Major Saxon W. Holt, marine recruiting officer announced that Judge McCarthy's offer to give up his $8,000.00-a-year job and enlist as a private in the Marines at $21 a month was submitted to Marine Corps Headquarters in Washington, D. C."

—United Press, Milwaukee, Wis.—6-4-42

"McCarthy voluntarily participated in a great number of combat missions, acting as rear-seat radio gunner, observer and photographer. He is in my opinion the only combat intelligence officer who insisted on doing his own observation and photographic work over enemy air fields that were defended by both enemy anti-aircraft fire and fighter planes.

—Col. E. E. Munn, Commanding Officer
Marine Dive Bombing Squadron No. 235

"When questioned as to his combat record by a Sentinel reporter, while on his way through Milwaukee from the Southwest Pacific, McCarthy said, . . . 'All I can say is that I've ruined a lot of coconut trees on those islands . . .'"

—Milwaukee Sentinel, 1944

"CLEAN, FINE LEADERSHIP"

"It is real leadership, the clean, fine leadership of young men for other young men."

—Stevens Point Daily Journal
(Editorial)

"Joe McCarthy has packed into the first 13 years of his adult life more achievements and experience than most men gain in a life-time."

—Wis. State Journal (Rex Karney)

"DOWN TO EARTH — PRACTICAL"

"Wisconsin needs a down-to-earth intelligently practical man like McCarthy to represent it in the U. S. Senate."

—Shawano Evening Leader (Editorial)

"He is of commanding ability. . . . He would help create an honorable and upright foreign policy. . . . If a combination of the McCarthy qualities cannot make a statesman, then what can?"

—Green Bay Press Gazette (Editorial)

"STRAIGHT THINKING, HONEST ACTING"

"A party is as great as the men who lead it and no greater. The Republicans have been winning all over the nation because of the character of their candidates. Saltonstall in Massachusetts, Warren in California, Bricker and Taft in Ohio, Green and Brooks in Illinois, Ball and Stassen in Minnesota and Kelly and Ferguson, the latter also taken from the circuit bench, in Michigan, are samples of the straight thinking and honest acting men who are heralds of a new and more decent day in American politics. They are the right type, and so is Capt. McCarthy."

—Green Bay Press Gazette (Editorial)

"A BLOOD TRANSFUSION FOR THE SENATE"

"Washington is suffering and therefore the nation is suffering from confusion born of staleness. . . .

"Joe McCarthy is a new blood for the anemia which besets us in Washington. He stands as Wisconsin's hopeful contribution to a transfusion sorely needed in the halls of Congress."

—La Crosse Tribune and Leader Press (Editorial)

"The Republicans picked a veteran, a judge with an outstanding record of achievement for any young man, and with him they expect to replace the Wisconsin erstwhile Progressive in the U. S. Senate.

"Joe McCarthy is largely a self-made man who had to come up the hard way, but it made him strong of mind and body and he will make a fine campaign, winning the voters away from the false Gods of bureaucracy, socialism, communism and back to the American way of life."

—The Berlin Journal (Editorial)

The Armed Forces

The Army:

"McCarthy's initiative, good judgment, determination and diligence have made him an unusually useful member of the intelligence section. . . . His unfailing good nature and ready wit made him well liked and respected by his associates. . . ."

—Major Gen. H. R. Harmon,
Commander Aircraft,
Solomon Islands.

The Navy:

"Although suffering from a severe leg injury, he refused to be hospitalized and continued to carry out his duties in a highly efficient manner. . . ."

—Admiral C. W. Nimitz,
Commander in Chief of the Pacific Fleet.

11

Say

The Marine Corps:

"I note with gratification McCarthy's unusual accomplishments during thirty months of active duty, particularly in the combat area. . . . Without exception the commanding officers under whom he served spoke of the performance of his duties in the highest terms."

—Major Gen. Field Harris,
Commandant for Air,
U. S. Marine Corps.

12

A FAR-SIGHTED VIEW ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS

"McCarthy, presents an intelligent and far-sighted view on foreign affairs. He doesn't want to give away American resources without gain, nor involve America in a war because of 'foreign' issues. But as a World War II veteran himself he clearly understands that America must step out in front in the fight for world cooperation, that will bring peace not only to us, but to all the countries of the world."

—Wisconsin State Journal
(Editorial)

Veterans and the Bonus

"McCarthy in two speeches on this subject made these points:

"1. Any soldier bonus law that is passed should be one devised by veterans themselves, rather than by non-service politicians who seek to use the bonus issue as a bait for votes."

"2. Disabled veterans and the widows and orphans of service men must receive priority in any assistance program, and neither veterans nor their dependents should be treated as relief clients.

"3. The question is not whether a bonus should be given, but when, how and in what amounts."

—Wisconsin State Journal (Editorial)
