EXPLANATORY.

In compiling the names of ex-soldiers and sailors of the Civil War, residing in the state on June 1, 1905, the plan of arrangement adopted in the census of 1895 has been followed, those of Wisconsin organizations being placed alphabetically under separate heads.

Although no other part of the recent census received, proportionately, so much time and attention, mistakes will doubtless be found in the compilation. Either by carelessness of the enumerators or of copyists in the offices of county clerks, the returns were in many cases incomplete.

Imperfect penmanship, incorrect spelling of names and omissions of necessary data rendered the task of compilation a very difficult one. In some instances it was impossible to identify names as to company, regiment or state. All such names were classified as "Soldiers of Other States."

The total number of names returned by the census enumerators is 17,731. To this number a few names have been added, being supplied by ex-soldiers who examined the returns and noted the omissions. There is no doubt that the enumerators failed to return the names of many ex-soldiers and sailors. It is to be hoped, however, that the number is not large. Much as the omissions are to be regretted, there was no way to make corrections except in manner indicated, which could cover but few cases.

In order to make the list as nearly correct as possible all available records were consulted, the work of compilation being under the direction of an ex-soldier familiar with all details.

When the next census is taken it will be found that many whose names are found herein have taken part in the "Grand Review." It is therefore to be hoped that veterans may find in this volume a means of locating and communicating with their former comrades in arms.

WALTER L. HOUSER,
Secretary of State.

SUMMARY.

In connection with the summary it will be of interest to note that according to the official records, the total number of men Wisconsin is credited with having furnished to the war is 91,327, divided as follows: Infantry, 77,375; cavalry, 8,877; artillery, 5,075. Of this number 3,802 were killed in action or died of wounds; and the number of deaths from all other causes, 8,499. Total deaths, 12,301. Of the 79,006 who were supposed to have been alive at the close of the war, this volume shows 9,521 were still living in the state on June 1st, 1905, being credited to the several branches of the service as follows: Infantry, 8,067; cavalry, 816; artillery, 628; Berdan's sharpshooters, 10.

The summary further shows that the first regiment of heavy artillery has the greatest number of living members (319) and the eleventh battery of light artillery the least (1).

The number credited to each is as follows:

ENUMERATION OF THE SOLDIERS OF THE CIVIL WAR

Who Served in Wisconsin Regiments and Batteries, Etc., and Reported by the Enumerators as Residing in the State June 20, 1905.

All names of soldiers returned by the enumerators with the company, regiment, or state omitted, have been placed in the list of "Soldiers of all other States," (see page 166) for the reason that there is no conclusive evidence that they served in Wisconsin organizations.
