Mr. R. G. Thwaites

Dear Sir, I take pleasure to for the Re Orderly as you request. It was simply the record of the days and was written by the clerks who had appointed from time to time. My predecessor Lieut Van Cleve made entries entries as duty required. Simply the Clerk and order was published from day to day and inspected by the Officers of the day one order was for the funeral of my dear father Meager Matthews Clark and Newman notice of death of the children etc. as a relic I may have a place in the archives of the new building and I can very welcome to it

Respectfully Yours C. O. Van Cleve
